AFFECTION CAUSED MENTAL INFIRMITY

Attorney Outlines Mrs. DeSaulles' Plan of Defense

Woman Charged with Murder of Her Husband Said to Have Suffered from Diseased Thyroid Gland, Which Caused Temporary Loss of Accountability.

Minneapolis, N. Y., Nov. 23.—"Hypothyroidism" which he termed an affection of the thyroid gland and which causes mental infirmity, was today given by attorneys as the disease from which Mrs. Blanca DeSaulles was suffering when she shot her divorced husband, John L. DeSaulles, at his Long Island home the night of August 3rd.

This definition of the cause of the defendant's alleged temporary loss of accountability was given by Henry A. Uterhart in outlining the case he will endeavor to prove in justification of the Chilean heiress on trial here charged with murder.

The prosecution rested at noon today.

Causes contributing to Mr. DeSaulles' impaired mental condition, Mr. Uterhart said he would show are to be found in a history of his client's domestic relations with the former Yale athlete and clubman whom she shot. A fracture of the skull, suffered several years ago, left a bit of bone pressing upon Mrs. DeSaulles' brain and this served to aggravate her alleged mental ailment, he said.

With announcement by the defense that Dr. Smith Eli Jelliffe, an alienist would testify in Mrs. DeSaulles' behalf, together with Dr. Louis C. Johnson of Johns Hopkins University whom Mr. Uterhart termed a "physiological chemist," it seemed certain that a long battle in which medical technicalities will figure, will precede the placing of the case in the hands of the jurors.

Mr. Uterhart took more than an hour to sketch the defendant's early life, her marriage to DeSaulles, their marital troubles which led to her obtaining a divorce and her version of what occurred at her husband's home the night of the tragedy.

The trial was resumed this morning with examination of several witnesses for the prosecution. The state rested its case shortly after noon with reading into the record two letters between DeSaulles and the defendant purporting to show that four and one half year old John L. DeSaulles, Jr., was legally in the custody of his father when his mother's futile effort to regain possession of him led to the shooting of DeSaulles, according to her claim.

Among those who testified were Marshal A. Ward, self styled intimate of John L. DeSaulles, Mrs. Caroline Degener, DeSaulles' sister and his father, Major Arthur B. DeSaulles, all of whom were at DeSaulles' home when the shooting took place.

Their accounts were contradictory in relation to Mrs. DeSaulles' first remarks when she entered the home just before DeSaulles was shot. District Attorney Charles B. Weeks after the prosecution sought to show that the remarks indicated she went to the place seeking her former husband. This, it established would serve to corroborate the state's claim of deliberate and premeditated murder.

The defense on the other hand attempted to prove that Mrs. DeSaulles said, when she entered the residence, "where's Jack—I have come to take him with me."

Sheriff Phineas Seaman and Constable Leonard Thorne, who arrested the defendant an hour after the shooting, both testified that Mrs. DeSaulles was very pale when they took her in custody. Despite the circumstances the young woman was calm—"unusually calm"—the sheriff said—when she was arrested.

On cross examination Seaman declared Mrs. DeSaulles gave "a peculiar little laugh" every few moments while being taken from the justice's court to the jail. Her actions, so, alarmed him, he said, that he "went for a clothline."

"Isn't this the zoo?" the sheriff said Mrs. DeSaulles asked as she entered the jail.

After examining the prisoner next morning Seaman said, the jail physician, Dr. P. G. Cleghorn, sent him a note saying it "would be unwise to confine Mrs. DeSaulles to a cell because of her extreme nervous and mental condition."

A large part of Attorney Uterhart's opening statement concerned DeSaulles' alleged infidelities. These, he said, could be verified by examination of the divorce proceedings.

Among those named by Uterhart in arraigning DeSaulles was Joan Sawyer, a dancer, whom he said DeSaulles "entertained" in a New York apartment throughout one winter. The Duke of Manchester, whom Uterhart styled as DeSaulles' "inseparable companion" was another mentioned as being associated with the husband's so-called "Broadway past."

The attorney gave a detailed account of events on the date of the shooting. He said that early the morning of August 3, DeSaulles "borrowed" her son in anticipation of a visit to his home by the boy's grandfather. The boy was in Mrs. DeSaulles' keeping, he declared, by agreement made a short time previously between the parents.

When the lad was not returned to his mother's home that night as promised, Uterhart said, Mrs. DeSaulles went to DeSaulles' home in the hope she might obtain possession of him. The attorney emphasized DeSaulles' refusal to accede to the mother's pleading that she be given the boy and said "our case will be founded on the written law—the law

PROMINENT BRITAINS OFFICIALLY HONORED

Viscount Reading Created an Earl and Lord Northcliffe a Viscount.

London, Nov. 23.—Viscount Reading, lord chief justice, has been created an earl and Lord Northcliffe a viscount, according to an official statement issued this evening.

Earl Reading, because of his eminence as a jurist and financier, was appointed chairman of the allies' financial commission from Great Britain and France which negotiated a $500,000,000 loan in the United States in the fall of 1915. In September, 1917, he returned to the United States on a special mission from the British war cabinet to convey information particularly regarding financial affairs to the Washington government.

Viscount Northcliffe, who is owner and editor of several London newspapers, was head of the British mission to the United States last June for the purpose of co-ordinating war work. On Nov. 16, he declined the post of lord of the British air ministry and expressed his dissatisfaction with the policies of Premier Lloyd George's government.

Northcliffe's letter resulted in the resignation of Viscount Cowdray from the chairmanship of the air ministry because it contained the first intimation to the incumbent that a change was contemplated by the premier.

CREATION OF POOLS WILL BE ENCOURAGED

Government Pooling and Sale of All Coal Mined in U. S. A. Possibility.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Government pooling and sale of all coal mined in the United States was seen as a possibility here today in the fuel administration's approval of a producers' pool just formed at Cleveland which will handle shipments of mines in Ohio, West Virginia, a part of Pennsylvania and perhaps Tennessee and Kentucky. Creation of other pools will be encouraged.

If government pooling is put into effect it will be made operative next spring and will supersede the shipper's pools. Under such an arrangement the government would requisition at the mines the entire output of coal, selling it without profit.

Advantages in a government pool pointed out today by officials would be that distribution would be easier, the government itself would direct shipments and more efficient operation of priority of movement.

PLAN MOVEMENT AGAINST VILLA

JUAREZ, Mexico, Nov. 23.—Arrangements were made tonight for a turning movement against Villa's forces in the Ojinaga sector with Juarez as the base. There were 2,500 troops in the garrison here tonight. A force of 1200 will leave early tomorrow as an exploration company to be followed by others.

It was reported in the vicinity of Escobedo southwest of Cuernavaca, Parado.

Conditions were reported normal in Chihuahua City.

Official investigation late today of the defense conducted at Ojinaga by General Espinosa Cordova and his 600 federals revealed they had less than 2,000 rounds of rifle ammunition and no machine gun ammunition when they abandoned the town and fled to the American side at Presidio. This coupled with reports made to American officers may absolve the general and his officers from blame in connection with the capitulation of Ojinaga before the Villa assault.

U. S. ARMY TANKS WILL BE EFFECTIVE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Tanks for the American army are expected to be effective in every way as those used by the British in their great drive, it was learned today although the tanks of construction or as to the number of machines being built were available. Secretary Baker refused to discuss the subject either in general or specific terms. There is every reason to believe however, that substantial progress has been made in producing fighting machines that embody all that the French and British authorities have learned of this type of war engine.

EVOLVES WAY OF SAVING SOFT CORN

OTTAWA, Ill., Nov. 23.—I. S. Brooks, DeSaulles county farm adviser, announced today he had evolved a way of utilizing salt to save soft corn which would enable a saving of $50,000,000 to the farmers of that county alone. He notified Governor Lowden, the state council of defense and the department of agriculture.

FORCE FEDERAL TROOPS BACK

Presidio, Texas, Nov. 23.—Villa's troops have driven the advance guard of the Mexican federal force in the vicinity of Cuernavaca Parado back toward Chihuahua City according to word here today.

Villa was in personal command of his column, which included half of the entire Villa force, the remainder being left at San Juan del Rio and Ojinaga, according to the information received here.

of the state of New York which says that a person shall not be convicted of a deed committed when suffering from such a defective reason as not to know the nature or the quality of the act or that it was wrong."

There will be no session of the trial tomorrow court having taken a recess until Monday at the request of the defendant's counsel.

SEEK REFORMATION OF WOMENS' DRESS STYLES

Will Effect Saving of 25 Per Cent of Materials

Commercial Economy Board of Council of National Defense Enlists Cooperation of French Ambassador in Conservation of Cloth.

Washington, Nov. 23.—With the aid of French Ambassador Jusserand in reformation of women's dress styles for 1918 a saving of 25 per cent of materials will be effected by the Commercial Economy Board of the Council of National Defense.

Men's clothing styles also have been simplified and to a great extent standardized with a saving of about 40 per cent in material.

N. S. Gifford, director of the council said today that the economy body studying essential and nonessential industries with a view to effecting readjustments as gradually as possible.

Faced with a shortage of wool, the economy board called on the French ambassador and explained that conservation of cloth was necessary to enable the nation to provide uniforms for its armies.

M. Jusserand communicated with his government with the result that co-operation of the designers was secured. Whether dresses will be shorter or tighter or merely less elaborate has not been announced.

TWENTY-SIX MILITANTS APPEAR IN COURT

Hearing Not Completed—Prisoners are Released On Parole

Alexandria, Va., Nov. 23.—Twenty-four militants of the Woman's Party serving terms in the District of Columbia workhouse at Occoquan, Va., for picketing the White House, appeared before Federal Judge Waddell here today in habeas corpus proceedings. Illegal conviction and transfer from the district jail to the Occoquan prison and cruel and inhuman treatment by the Occoquan were charged.

Hearing of the case was not completed today and the militants were released on parole. They spent the night in Washington.

Twenty-seven women were named in the writ but counsel for the government contended that Miss Lucy Burns, vice-chairman of the Woman's Party, Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, of Philadelphia and Miss Hattie Kruger of Buffalo, were too ill to appear. The militants demanded that they be produced as material witnesses and the court promised to have them present if it was found their testimony was necessary.

The hunger strike carried on by thirteen of the women prisoners was broken last night when doctors at the institution told them, they said, that they would not be allowed to appear in court until they took some nourishment. They appeared every week today.

Miss Burns and Mrs. Lewis have been undergoing forcible feeding since early in the week.

"WAKE-UP AMERICA" MEETING IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 23.—At a "Wake-up America" meeting held in Wall Street today, Canadian, English and American speakers declared the United States and her allies need an army of specialized tradesmen and craftsmen to assist in winning the war and that a recruiting campaign will be made through the United States to enlist them. Chauffeurs, cooks, carpenters, plumbers, electricians, stenographers and typewriters are just a few of the specialized workers needed. In the concerted allied drive to enlist these workers, the recruiting officers and others interested will address the "Wake-up" meetings.

Shortage of women typists and stenographers in the statistical department of the adjutant general's office at Washington has made it impossible to supply the expeditionary force in France with all the information it requires according to a statement issued by the mayor's committee on national defense in appealing for recruits for this branch of the service.

AMERICAN MISSION WELCOMED IN FRANCE

PARIS, Nov. 23.—The American mission headed by Col. E. M. House, has been welcomed by the French public men and the newspapers as visible evidence of the earnestness of President Wilson and the American people with regard to the war and the urgent need for co-ordination and unity.

The feeling among the French ministers is that American counsel, American initiative and American aid are now needed by the Allies, who are especially receptive to fresh ideas and impulses.

ILLINOIS MAN KILLED IN ACTION

Rockford, Ill., Nov. 23.—Private Elmer Nelson was killed in action in France on Nov. 6, according to a telegram to his mother, Mrs. Eda Nelson of this city from the Director of Records at Ottawa, Canada. Nelson was 24 years old, enlisted in the Canadian forces last April. His mother supposed he had joined the United States Navy as he had asked her permission to do so, but later heard from him that he joined the Canadians so as to get into the fighting more quickly.

AVIATOR DROWNED

Washington, Nov. 23.—Herman Rose, aviator, was drowned here today when his machine plunged into the bay, as he was giving an exhibition flight before a test board.

FIGHTERS' MOTHER DEAD

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 23.—Mrs. Thomas Gibbons, mother of Michael and Thomas Gibbons, St. Paul boxers, died at her home here today after an illness of ten days. Death was due to pneumonia.

War News Summarized

While in the main the British troops in the region of Cambrai are consolidating the positions they won in the spectacular two day battle, considerable hard fighting of a local character is taking place on several sectors, where the Germans are endeavoring to drive out the English, Scotch, Welsh and Irish contingents whose drive has placed them virtually on the threshold of Cambrai.

Especially severe has been the fighting around Creve Coeur, Moeuvres and the Bourlon wood, in the latter of which regions at last accounts the British cavalry was operating brilliantly in an endeavor to surround and capture the wood which would give General Byng a position dominating the entire battle front. All the ground previously gained by the British had been held up to late Friday and in addition west of Moeuvres an elevation dominating a large section of the Canal du Nord and the town of Moeuvres which is in the hands of the Germans had been captured.

The Germans are fighting bitterly to recapture lost terrain and to hold back further incursions into their line. The fighting however, apparently is between the opposing British advance, and the German rear guard for the major portion of General Byng's army evidently is engaged in consolidating the territory already won and preparing for another dash forward when the time is opportune.

Altho the British are busy in the Cambrai sector, Field Marshal Haig has not overlooked a chance again to stab the German line in Flanders. Southeast of Ypres in a attack the British have thrown forward their line slightly. On the southern front the Germans have delivered several small attacks against the British in the Aisne region, northwest of Rheims and in Champagne, but all of them were repulsed by the French artillery.

Between the Brenita and Piave rivers in the Italian theater the Italians and the Teutonic allies are still at deadly grips, with the enemy endeavoring to break thru to the Venetian plain, but with the Italians everywhere tenaciously holding their line. All along the front the fighting is of a peculiarly sanguinary nature, the troops frequently meeting in hand-to-hand encounters and positions often changing hands.

The enemy everywhere is throwing masses of men against the Italians and his losses in men killed, wounded or made prisoner have been extremely heavy. It seemingly is the ambition of the invaders to break out upon the plain before the expected British and French reinforcements arrive, but up to the present their efforts have been without avail.

Comparative quiet prevails along the Piave river to the Adriatic.

FILM EXHIBITORS SUIT DISMISSED

Cleveland, O., Nov. 23.—The injunction suit brought by thirteen Cleveland Film Exhibitors against eleven New York Film Producers seeking to restrain the latter from adding what they claimed was an exorbitant sum for war tax purposes to the rental price of films was dismissed today. It was the first film war tax levy suit that has been brought and as such attracted more than ordinary notice.

The judge held the court was powerless to act in the case of producers raising the rental price of films, no matter whether it was called war tax or not. He said the suit might come under the anti-trust law.

The exhibitors will meet later to decide what action shall be taken.

BOLSHEVIKI REIGN WILL BE SHORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 23.—Reign of the Bolsheviki in Russia will be short, when a man strong enough to lead appears in the opinion of Count Hya Tolstol, second son of the late Count Leo Tolstol who is enroute east.

He has just returned from a tour of Russia," he said. "The Maximalists will not remain in power long. They hold Petrograd, but Petrograd is not Russia. In Moscow the sentiment is against their tactics and Moscow represents the best thought in Russia."

It is impossible to say whether Russia will again become a factor in the war, but this is sure—the people, both in the country and in the cities are weary of fighting. It is only a question of whether they prefer war or German domination."

RUSSIAN TROOPS WILL EVACUATE GALICIAN TOWNS

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 23.—A despatch to the Frankfurter Zeitung from Vienna says reports received from Tarnopol are to the effect that Russian troops are preparing to evacuate the East Galician towns of Gnyamadoff and Skalat, near the Russian border.

The despatch adds that the advanced positions already have been voluntarily evacuated.

ARGUMENTS COMPLETED

Belleville, Ill., Nov. 23.—Arguments in the case of Richard Brockway, former special agent of the East St. Louis and Suburban Railway and four other white men charged with conspiracy in connection with the East St. Louis race riots were completed in the circuit court here tonight. No verdict is expected before tomorrow.

BOMB DISCOVERED

New York, Nov. 23.—An employee of the street cleaning department discovered a bomb in a heap of rubbish on a city scow near the Williamsburg bridge today. Instructions in German said:

"Light this if coast is clear" and "Light this if there is danger."

MORE RAIN IN U. S. TRENCHES

With the American Army in France, Nov. 23.—By the Associated Press—Drizzling rains have again turned the American sector into a sea of sticky mud. Low visibility has caused the artillery activity to subside to normal. Routine patrolling continues.

BOLSHEVIKI FOREIGN MINISTER INTERVIEWED

Trotsky Declares Against Separate Peace with Germany

Asserts Soldiers and Workmen's Government Desires Universal Peace with European Nations—Believes Proletariat of All Countries Will Support Proposition.

Petrograd, Wednesday, Nov. 21.—In connection with the order to General Dukhonin, commander-in-chief of the Russian army, to open negotiations for an armistice with the enemy commanders, the Associated Press today interviewed Leon Trotsky, Bolsheviki foreign minister. He declared the soldiers and workmen's government was against a separate peace with Germany. He voiced his conviction that Russia's initiative in offering peace will be supported by the proletariat of all countries, allied or belligerent, which will make impossible continuation of the war even if government's do not accept the offer.

"If the allied governments do not support the policy of a democratic peace," Trotsky said, "the allied peoples will support us against their governments. Our policy is calculated not for capitalistic diplomacy, but for support of the working masses."

"We are against a separate peace with Germany; we are for a universal peace with the European nations. If our frank and honest offers of peace meet no response, we would declare a revolutionary war against German imperialism, we would mobilize all our forces, confiscate large food supplies and prosecute the war as energetically as we did the revolution; but we have ground to think that our offer of peace will make impossible the continuation of the war on all fronts."

"All the Bourgeoisie is against us. The greater part of the intellectuals is against us or hesitating, awaiting a final outcome. The working class is wholly with us. The array is with us. The peasants with the exception of exploiters are with us."

GOVERNMENT CONTROLS NEWLY OPENED MINES

Fuel Administration Issues Regulations Governing Operation of Coal Mines

Washington, Nov. 23.—Newly opened coal mines were put under direct government control today by the fuel administration which issued regulations governing their operation and fixed prices at which their output may be sold. Development of further new coal properties during the war will be discouraged on the grounds that old mines can be operated more efficiently.

Operations classed as newly opened mines are those opened before September 1 and ready to produce coal by January 1, 1918. After the mines are producing at the rate of 250 tons a day they will be permitted to charge the actual cost of production, until then they may charge only the present government fixed prices. The mines will be required to submit to the fuel administration monthly cost statements and the only elements that will be permitted to enter into costs will be the actual cost of mining, transportation, hoisting and loading, to which may be added not to exceed one half of the cost of mine management and machinery.

NEWSPAPERMAN IS DENIED EXEMPTION

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 23.—James G. Scripps, directing head of newspapers owned by his father, E. W. Scripps of San Diego and chairman of the board of the United Press association and the Newspaper Enterprise association, was denied exemption from military service today by the district exemption board. The appeal from a San Diego local board was filed by his father and supported by his business associates who contended he would be more valuable to the United States as the chief executive of the several newspapers and press services.

CHARGED WITH BEING I. W. W. FIELD AGENT

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 23.—Believed to be a field agent for the Industrial Workers of the World, a man giving his name as Butler Lee was arrested at Westville, a mining town five miles south of here today by a federal officer. Many letters and papers were found on his person identifying him as a member of the I. W. W. and there will be held as evidence against him.

PAT PAGE MAY MANAGE CARDINALS

Chicago, Nov. 23.—H. Orville "Pat" Page, baseball coach at the University of Chicago, would neither deny nor confirm reports today that he was considering an offer to become manager of the St. Louis National League Baseball club.

SENTENCED TO PRISON

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 23.—Dr. James D. Banta, of Rock Island, convicted yesterday of violation of the federal drug laws, was this afternoon sentenced by Federal Judge Evans to two years in the Leavenworth penitentiary and to pay a fine of $1,400.

REDUCTION OF RUSSIAN ARMY

Petrograd, Nov. 23.—Reduction of the Russian army, beginning with the class conscripted in 1919 has been proclaimed by the Bolsheviki leader, M. Lenin, an official announcement today states. The order is to take effect immediately.

HEALTH CONDITIONS IN ARMY CAMPS BETTER

Ninety-six Deaths In National Guard and Army Camps During Week of Nov. 16.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Altho ninety-six deaths occurred at National Guard and National Army camps during the week ending Nov. 16, health conditions at a majority of the camps were more satisfactory than for the week previous, Field Sanitation reports to the surgeon general compiled today show.

The highest sick rates come from camps at which Southern troops are training. The rate in the national guard is 42.6 a thousand, compared with 28.5 for the national army men. The highest rate was at Camp Travis, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, where measles is increasing. The rate is 8.9 a thousand. Camp Mead at Annapolis Junction, Maryland, showed the cleanest slate with a rate of 9.1.

The national guards camps where conditions are not as good as the previous week are at Fort Huachuca, S. C., Macon, Ga., Fort Worth, Texas, Hattiesburg, Miss. and Alexandria, La., and Fort Sam Houston and Mead are given as the cause.

The national army camps not up to the standard of the previous week were at Columbia, S. C., Fort Riley, Kans., and Fort Sam Houston.

SECRETARY OF TREASURY ANNOUNCES NEW PLAN

McAdoo Will Place in Circulation Nearly Two Million Dollars.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Secretary McAdoo tonight announced a new plan to place in circulation nearly two billion dollars accumulated in the treasury as a result of a big overpayment received this week from the liberty loan.

Three hundred million dollars of certificates of indebtedness due Dec. 15 were called in for redemption on Dec. 6 and another issue of $400,000,000 of certificates also due Dec. 15, will be redeemed Dec. 11, both issues at par with accrued interest. This arrangement will leave only the $655,000,000 issue to be paid Dec. 15.

The secretary decided to call in the two issues before their maturity when it became evident that the aggregate amount of the payments Nov. 15 on Liberty Loan subscriptions in the form of certificates of indebtedness was about $2,400,000, three and a half times more than was due on the 18 per cent installment. In other words, it is now disclosed by belated reports to the treasury that nearly two thirds of the subscriptions to the second liberty loan have been paid in full.

Tabulations tomorrow are expected to show about $1,750,000,000 in cash was received this week.

BRITISH CANNOT DECORATE U. S. SAILORS

Washington, Nov. 23.—An offer by the British admiralty to decorate certain officers and men of two American destroyers for their services in combating German submarines has been declined, Secretary Daniels announced today because the laws of this country prevent soldiers and sailors from receiving decorations from foreign governments.

Lieutenant Commanders Charles A. Blakely and George F. Neal were to be nominated for the distinguished service order, Lieutenant Frank Liffin, and Ensign Henry F. Fallon of the distinguished service cross and Quartermaster W. H. Justice and Chief Machinists Mate E. G. McNaughton for service medals. The names of the ships to which the officers and men are attached were withheld for military reasons.

PLANS TO ESTABLISH LARGE RIFLE RANGE

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Plans for establishing the largest rifle range in the midwest north of Zion City, Illinois, were announced today by Captain W. A. Moffet, commander of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. The announcement followed the receipt of messages from the navy department at Washington and Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois turning over to the Great Lakes Station the Camp Logan rifle range until recently used by the Illinois National Guard.

The range embraces more than 100 acres and will soon be thrown open to the 17,000 sailors at the Great Lakes station.

Gun clubs and civilian organizations also will be invited to use the rifle range.

REPUBLICANS HAVING DIFFICULTIES

Washington, Nov. 23.—Difficulties over republican leadership in the house during the approaching session promise to be revived because of minority Leader Mann's ill-health. Representative Mann has returned to Washington somewhat improved in physical condition since congress adjourned but he said he did not expect to be able to remain here much of the time this winter.

ADMIRAL CAPPS RESIGNS AS SHIPPING BOARD HEAD

Relieved of Position by President At Own Request

Chairman Hurley Favors Appointment of Man Trained in Naval Construction Service and Believes All Efforts of Board Should be Concentrated Upon Construction.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Rear-Admiral Washington L. Capps, general manager of the shipping board, was relieved from that position tonight by President Wilson at his own request because of ill health. The president expressed deep regret. A successor has not been named but Chairman Hurley of the board was known to favor the appointment of a man trained in the same service.

There were reports that friction with Chairman Hurley hastened the admiral's decision to retire.

There was much discussion tonight as to the selection by the president of a successor to Admiral Capps. Homer L. Ferguson, president and general manager of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock company, is known to have declined the post. In a letter to Secretary Daniels made public tonight Chairman Hurley suggested that a naval engineer or constructor be named and the secretary and Mr. Hurley conferred to night on the matter but so far as was made known they reached no decision.

There has been reported that Rear-Admiral F. T. Bowles, former head of the Fore River Shipbuilding company and also formerly a chief constructor of the navy would retire with Admiral Capps, whose chief assistant he has been since the latter's appointment, but no announcement was made tonight.

As the situation was presented by those familiar with events transpiring within the shipping board, emergency fleet corporation since Chairman Denman and General Goethals resigned as heads of these two interlocked government agencies after a clash of opinion the shipping board in assuming responsibility for the carrying thru of the enormous production program outlined by Chairman Hurley has daily taken over the actual direction of building operations. Mr. Hurley feels that the designing part of the corporation's work is so well advanced that all efforts shall be concentrated upon construction. For that reason it appeared possible that Admiral Capps' successor might be selected purely for his ability to drive the construction program.

Tribute was paid Admiral Capps on all sides for the work he has done in organizing the corporation's office.

DISMISSAL WILL FOLLOW RIDICULE

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Men employed in the plant of the Otis Elevator company here received official warning today that they will be dismissed if they ridicule the combination trousers-bloomers overalls worn by women workers in the

THE USE OF THE TONGUE.

Freedom of speech, whether in college, public press or street, is subject to the same fundamental limitations as freedom of other activity.
A man has no more right to use his tongue to the injury of his neighbor or his country than he has to use his fist to their injury. The right of free speech does not mean irresponsible speech, says the Outlook.
The right of free press does not mean irresponsible printing. The right of free press and free speech does not mean that the soapbox orator has a right to lampoon his fellow citizens of a different race, political opinion or religious faith, and incite to mob violence; it does not mean that the press has a right to lampoon the government and incite readers to resist the law of the land and give aid and comfort to the enemy. It does not mean that a college professor has a right to take advantage of his position to conduct a propaganda against the efficient conduct of the war and use the name of the college in doing so. The doctrine that speech and press should be uncensored still leaves the government unimpaired authority to punish the speech or article if it violates or incites others to violate the laws of the land. And if a reformer thinks the law is so bad that he ought to violate it and that he ought to incite others to violate it, he must not complain if he suffers

the penalty that is coming to him.
He can not have the glory of martyrdom without his inconveniences.

comes into view. It is mostly of sand, rock and barren soil, with here and there a starved shrub. It is twenty miles across, and runs thirty-five miles toward Jerusalem, and more human destiny has been threshed out upon it than upon any other territory of like size on earth.
The Quincy Journal says that here
Jonathan and Saul fought the Philistines, were beaten, punished and the cause of civilization was set back.
Here Saulin beat King Richard, and the Christian cross went down before the Mohammedan crescent. Here the Moslems first got their grasp on sacred Palestine and fought to make Constantinople the religious capital of the eastern world. Here Napoleon dreamed his dream of world-conquest, world-slavery to au-tority.

Today, Turkish armies are fleeing toward this plain and may make their last stand therein. In the south, the British are pressing up from Gaza. To the east, the British are aiming toward this plain from the Euphrates. Coming down from Persia is a Russian force. To the north, are forces of British, Australians, Armenians, Greeks, Serbians, French and Rumanians pointing toward Constantinople and this plain.
And permanent world peace is their cause—liberty, brotherhood, civilization.

Turn to your bible, at revelations,
chapter 14.
"For they are the spirits of devils working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty."

And He gathered them together into a place.
"And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying,

"It is done!"

If the Turks get a proper beating in this plain, the central powers will likely "crack" and you may hear from the throne of Austria a great voice crying "It is the finish!"
Watch that plain! It is today called Esdraelon. The old Hebrew writers named it Armageddon.

EIGHT HUNDRED BOYS.

It is doubtful if Jacksonville people have much of an idea of the pleasure and benefit in prospect for them in connection with the older boys' conference. There will be 800 boy visitors in Jacksonville Nov.
30, Dec. 1 and 2. They will come from good homes and cities in various parts of the state and they are going to be entertained in Jacksonville homes. Those who have attended previous conferences held in this state declare that it is indeed an inspiration to come in contact with such fine examples of young life as gather for these conferences.

Local churches are responding readily in providing for the entertainment of these boys, and it is very certain that Jacksonville will have a much higher opinion of the older boys conference plan after the conference had adjourned than it can possibly have in advance.

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

THE CROSSROADS CRITIC

The generals I roundly scold, I criticize the soldiers bold, who now conduct the fray; the Kaiser would be promptly canned, if I were only in command, and running things my way. I sit around the corner store, with languid cronies, half a score, who smoke their long clay pipes; I swipe the grocer's priceless cheese, and say the scrap across the seas is giving me the gripes. And when I pause to take a rest, some other jay pulls down his vest, and talks in kindred strain; he hits the grocer's demijohn, and says the way the war goes on is giving him a pain. When he subsides another skate explains that Haig's a featherweight, a failure and repeat; he takes a bite of boneless cod and says that balled up scrap abroad is giving him cold feet. If you would find the gifted light on whom Napoleon's mantle might most fittingly descend, if you a Caesar would decry, don't cast your keen inquiring eye where modern armies wend; don't waste a scrutinizing glance upon the riven fields of France, all red and damp with gore;
avoid the battle's din and reek—for you will find the man you seek in any village store. He sits and talks from sun to sun, and says he wishes he might run that scrap across the pond;
his fount of language ne'er runs dry until some fellow asks him why he has not bought a bond.

TELLS OF BOYS CONFERENCE

Editor Journal:
What is "Pep"? The Older Boys Conference which will be held in our city the last of next week will be a good example of it. With eight hundred representative boys and young men from different parts of this State grouped in a meeting where they will seriously study the problems for better things it will be a wonderful sight. These young men are all picked fellows from the best homes, who represent the Sunday schools and Y. M. C. A.'s of this state. They are sent to this conference so that they may bring back to their communities something that will bring about advancement in the activities of these organizations.

Renowned speakers will be on the program who will show the delegates the better way. And so if we are to make a success of something worth while that may never come to Jacksonville again, we should support and boost this Older Boys Conference.
Have your boy (if he is between 15 and 21) attend and you will never regret it. I attended the Conference last year at Galesburg and I find that I cannot praise it enough.

GREAT NEED FOR PORK
INCREASE IN STATE

Assurance of Good Price Should Encourage Farmer in Swine Production—Special Campaign is Being Wagged to Increase Interest in Subject.

A special pork production campaign is in progress in Illinois under the direction of Prof. W. J. Carmichael, representing both the U. S.
department of agriculture and the University of Illinois. His work is part of a country wide effort to increase the production of pork, the necessity of this increase having been emphasized by the federal food administration. The following statement was prepared by Prof. Carmichael:

A Three Fold Call.
There has never been a time in the history of these United States when we have had such a call for increased meat production as at present. We now have three sets of mouths to feed; our soldiers, our citizens and our allies. The world shortage of fats is also demanding the conversion of available materials into fats. We have, fortunately, a record crop of grain which must be fed largely to animals. This meat shortage can be most easily met by an increase in the amount of pork which we produce. Fortunately, too, swine flesh and swine products are easily preserved for shipping and are very popular and useful in rationing the armies in the field.

One of the best ways for increasing the production for the coming year is to breed more sows than usual. The estimated necessary increase in the whole United States is 15 per cent, but the Illinois swine quota, due to the 1917 corn crop and the status of the swine industry in the state, is placed as 20 per cent more than in 1917. During the summer and fall there has been an enormous number of sows sent to market and as a result it will be necessary to save as many gilts as possible and breed them for spring litters if we are to have an increase in the 1918 pig crop. Can we not come up to the expectations?

During the farrowing seasons little pigs die off by the hundreds of thousands, approximately one-third of all farrowed falling by the wayside before weaning time. By taking good care of the sow before farrowing so that she is in good physical condition at that critical time and feeding her carefully for the first few days after the pigs are born,
many of the losses can be averted.
Well-planned, sanitary quarters with plenty of fresh air and sunshine will also appreciably increase the percent of pigs raised. Pure luck does not play a very great part in successful big raising, although many would choose to blame their "poor luck" for their failures, but it is rather poor management that permits these inroads on the possible profits. Each pig saved means added profit and increased production.

The Health of Hogs.

The many forms of disease exact a terrific toll from the swine industry. Canker, sore mouth, scours, worms, lice, cholera and swine
plague all make serious inroads, and can be controlled if proper measures are employed. Good rations and comfortable quarters, however, contribute largely to the health of the hogs.

In past years there has been a decided tendency towards marketing thousands of light-weight, unfinished hogs. Such a practice should be discontinued and the owners should either purchase feeds for their hogs or sell them to some feeder who will feed them out. With the present proposed ratio of prices between corn and hogs, and with the minimum price which has been set for government purchases, one can well afford to carry the hogs on to a weight of 250 pounds or more. For immediate results there is no better practice for increasing our production than to feed our hogs to a heavier weight.

With the assurance offered by the Food Administration it seems that there should be no reason why pork production should not be increased.
The fixed ratio of the equivalent of the market price of 13 bushels of corn for each 100 pounds of pork produced provides a sufficient margin for the average farmer to make a good profit and for the extraordinary manager to profit accordingly.
Pork production seems assured of profit.

CONCORD MAKES FINE
ARMY Y. M. C. A. SHOWING

Product Goes "Over The Top" In Fine Shape—Work Was Well Organized.

Concord, Nov. 23.—The canvas for the Army Y. M. C. A. fund, which closed last Monday night, was in some respects one of the most remarkable ever conducted in Concord precinct. The result surprised the skeptical, and also the most optimistic. Many thought $100 would be the limit for old Concord, but the fact is, Concord doesn't know yet what is the limit. $662, the amount raised is 155 1/2 per cent of the quota. The officers and workers were as follows:

Chairman—C. G. Cantrell.
Lieutenant—C. E. Rexroat.
Captains—W. R. Zahn, Alfred Brookhouse, F. C. Nickel, Rev. A. A.
Fairchild, Rev. Thomas Simonds, and G. Hann.

They were assisted by W. H.
Williamson, E. M. Harmon, B. A.
Cratz, H. P. Joy and George Detrick.
These men worked faithfully and the result speaks louder than words of the loyalty, and patriotism of the donors and the ability and industry of the workers. A number of these men furnished the use of their cars in addition to their time. Concord can look back with a good deal of pride at what has been done, and can face the future without any fear of falling down and Concord is only a little part of Morgan county, where money grows.

Former Pastors' Week.

Following the Sunday services the week will be filled with services of special interest to members of the Waverly church. The week will be known as former pastors' week and the services will be in charge of ministers who have served the church in past years. The program for the week with the name of the minister is given herewith.

Monday evening—Rev. J. O.
Kirkpatrick, Jacksonville.
Tuesday evening—Rev. F. M.
Barton, Greenfield.

Wednesday evening—Rev. D. T.
Black, Marshall.

Thursday evening—Rev. J. E.
Smith, Warrensburg.

Friday evening—Rev. A. N. Simmons, Edinburg.

Saturday—No Service.

Francis G. Smith is pastor of the church and it has been largely due to his efforts that the present magnificent edifice is possible. Mr. Smith had able assistance from the members of the building committee who have given much time and thought to the new building. The committee is composed of N. B. Rohrer, chairman, W. B. Smedley, Dr. N. J.
Hughes, Fred E. Deatherage and Lora B. Swift. It surely must be with much pride and pleasure that this committee and the pastor now look upon complete realization of the efforts.

Description of Building.

The new building is a distinct departure from the accepted idea of church architecture, at least in this section of the county. It is colonial style and constructed of the best of materials and by the best workmen obtainable. While economy was the watchword with the committee, it did not let that interfere with beauty or convenience.

The building is 78 feet, 8 inches by 55 feet, 8 inches in dimensions. The brick used are stippled face brick with Bedford stone trimmings. A basement runs under the entire building. In this basement is the fuel and boiler rooms, storage room, kitchen and pantry, cloak room, two lavatories, a dining room 42 by 42 feet with an assembly room adjoining 33 by 42 feet. The ceiling is 9 1/2 feet. All of the woodwork in the basement is southern pine.

On the main floor is the auditorium. The assembly room of the Sabbath school adjoins the auditorium and which can be thrown into the auditorium. On three sides of the assembly room in the balcony and on the main floor are twelve class rooms, ladies reception parlors, Sabbath school secretary's room, church room and pastor's study. The woodwork on the main floor is oak.

SOLD SOME LITTLE PIGS

D. E. Kennedy sold to A. O. Harris a few little piglets yesterday at a price which is fair to middling. There were sixty of them that averaged 235 pounds and brought $17.40, realizing just about $3,500. They were about twelve months old, all sired by a thorough Jersey Duroc boar, the dams were not all thoroughbreds but of various breeds.
When they left their dams Mr. Kennedy had them run on an alfalfa field that was well supplied with feed. He had a field of wheat that was not very promising and so in the spring he harrowed in a lot of oats and the combined crop was quite abundant, half wheat and half oats. This he soaked and gave the hogs which thrived on it finely.
About Sept. 15th, he turned them in-
to a cornfield which finished them off nicely.

Fiery Eczema and Skin Eruptions
Readily Yield to This Old Remedy

Successfully used for fifty years.

Eczema and similar skin troubles come from a disordered, impure condition of the blood, and they can only be cured by giving the blood a thorough cleansing, and removing from it all traces of impurity.

This is why S. S. S. has been used so successfully in hundreds of cases of Eczema and other skin eruptions.

This wonderful remedy is without an equal as a blood purifier, being probably the oldest blood medicine on the market. It has been sold by druggists for fifty years.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

SPADES

We have made a special study of spades for ditching and excavating. For years we have been experimenting—using different grades of steel, different shapes of handles—in an effort to produce a spade light in weight, but strong enough for service and of just the right "hang".

We have learned about spades

Perhaps more than any other merchant, and we know we are telling you nothing but the exact truth when we say that GOLD TIP SPADES are the best that have ever been sold for the purpose for which they are intended.

Backache of Women

How this Woman Suffered and Was Relieved.

Fort Fairfield, Maine.—"For many months I suffered from backache caused by female troubles so I was unable to do my house work. I took treatments for it but received no help whatever. Then some of my friends asked why I did not try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and my backache soon disappeared and I felt like a different woman, and now have a healthy little baby girl and do all my house work. I will always praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to women who suffer as I did."—MRS. ALTON D. OAKES, Fort Fairfield, Maine.

WOODSON MASONIC LODGE INSTITUTED

Impressive Ceremonies Marked Institution of Masonic Lodge at Woodson—Work in Charge of Local Masons with A. C. Metcalf acting as Grand Master—New Lodge Had Twenty-Seven Members.

Woodson lodge No. 1011 A. F. and A. M. was organized with impressive ceremonies Friday evening. The work was in charge of Masons from Jacksonville with A. C. Metcalf acting as Grand Master. They were assisted by Mr. Bied of Chicago, and Mr. McCollom of Lexington. Mr. Bied made a deep impression upon the members, many saying he was the finest they had ever heard in the part of Grand Marshal. The other officers of the grand lodge were: Deputy Grand Master—C. P. Ross, Grand Secretary—Harvey D. Atkins, Grand Junior Warden—John Nunez, Grand Chaplain—Julius G. Strawn, Grand Orator—T. H. Rapp, Grand Treasurer—W. A. Crawley, Grand Secretary—J. H. Dial, Grand Senior Deacon—Frank Brison, Grand Junior Deacon—F. Muehlhausen, Grand Senior Steward—M. L. Robinson, Grand Junior Steward, C. Rigdon, Master of Oldest Lodge—R. J. Farris, Standard Bearer—A. Wehl, Grand Sword Bearer—Asa M. Robinson, Grand Marshal—Mr. Bied, Chicago.

The new lodge officers: Worshipful Master—C. C. Self, Senior Warden—Edward Sorrells, Junior Warden—R. R. Jones, Treasurer—W. Nichols, Secretary—Joseph Self, Senior Deacon—John Baxter, Junior Deacon—J. L. McCormick, Stewards—Allan Sturdy, W. H. Oldham, Marshal—Richard Megginson, Tyler—James H. Devore.

The new lodge starts with a membership of twenty-seven and its prospects for the future seem bright as the members are filled with enthusiasm. About twenty members from the local Masonic lodges were in attendance at the institution. There also were members present from Murrayville and Franklin. Prior to the work the visitors enjoyed a fine dinner which was served at 6 o'clock.

WANT HIGHER RATES
The Springfield Gas and Electric company has made application to the state utilities commission for authority to increase its rate for heating service. The petition for increase is based on the fact that the cost of coal has greatly increased and that general operation costs have also gone upward.

The Abbott Light & Power company of Petersburg has also made application for the right to increase rates for lighting and power, giving as reasons increased cost of operations. This company does business in Petersburg, Tallula, Mason City and Ashland.

The Medical College of Virginia is expected soon to open its doors to women.

Social Events

South Side Circle

Met With Mrs. Weber.
The South Side Circle met with Mrs. Herman Weber of South Jacksonville Friday afternoon with a good attendance of members and several visitors. Mrs. Follansbee had charge of the program. The topic was "Old Time Thanksgiving." The regular program was carried out and a social hour followed during which the hostess served dainty refreshments. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Walter Bradish, 1130 West College avenue, Friday, Nov. 30.

Entertained at Dinner.

Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Fletcher, Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Joseph R. Harker were entertained at dinner Wednesday at the pleasant home of Edmund Blackburn northwest of the city. The occasion proved most enjoyable.

Treated to Surprise.

Miss Fern Haigh was pleasantly surprised at her home 135 Hardin avenue Thursday evening. Twenty-five of her friends descended on the Haigh home and enjoyed a splendid dinner. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. The event was in honor of Miss Haigh's birthday.

C. W. E. M. of Lynville

Christian Church Gave Play.
The ladies of the C. W. E. M. of Lynville Christian church gave an entertainment and oyster supper Friday evening. There was a large attendance and the event proved most successful. The ladies first gave a short play in the church. Following this, oysters and ice cream were served in the town hall.

Ladies Aid of Litchberry

Gave Hen Social.
The Red Cross auxiliary of the Litchberry M. E. church held a hen social at Arcadia church Friday evening. The building was filled with an interested company and the ladies received 190 pounds of chicken. This was disposed of to H. E. Frye who was present with his truck. The price at present is only 16 cents per pound but Mr. Frye generously gave the ladies 17 cents per pound for which they are duly grateful. One hen admitted four persons.

During the evening a program was given which was greatly enjoyed. Following the program the ladies served pie, cookies and coffee. A few pies and cookies were left and these were auctioned off by Sam Cram. The ladies realized $43 which will be used to purchase materials for the making of garments for the Red Cross.

The program follows:
Song, America—Audience.
Prayer—Samuel Cram.
Recitation, The Pretty Chicken—Eleanor Dinwiddie.
Music, Prohibition Blues—Edna Ogilvie.

Arcadia Newspaper—Mrs. O. G. Dinwiddie.
Play, Why I Never Married—By Old Maids and Old Bachelors.
Closing Song—By The Cast of The Play.

The officers of the society are:
President—Mrs. A. E. Obermeyer.
Secretary—Ellen Deatherage.
Treasurer—Mrs. Sarah Rexroat.
The committee to whom credit is due for the success of the entertainment was composed of Mrs. Mary Dinwiddie, Mrs. Lena Thompson, Mrs. Mabel Clark and Mrs. Sarah Rexroat.

CARTHAGE CANCELLED GAME

Carthage college cancelled its game with Illinois College which was scheduled for Saturday. Coach Harmon said last night that Carthage had signed a contract to come here for a certain amount of money and then made a demand for more. When it was refused they cancelled. Coach Harmon went to Urbana Friday night to see the game between Minnesota and Illinois.

INTERESTING TALKS MADE AT CENTENARY

Miss Cecile Long Told of Work of Chicago Training School—Rev. F. T. Peters of Manchester Discussed Germany and Life of Its Citizens.

An interested and appreciative audience heard two interesting speakers at Centenary church last evening.

The first was Miss Cecile F. Long of Chicago who told of the Chicago Training School and the great work of the organization to which she belongs. She narrated in graphic terms the humble beginning with four pupils and then told of the present condition, the number it has sent out and the other numbers it is preparing for all kinds of usefulness. Everywhere there is a need for the presence and work of woman. To her a man will listen when entreaties from all other sources are in vain. It is her gentle hand that can soothe the pain of the fevered brow and her gentle skill will accomplish wonders in all cases.

Add to this Christian character and education and what a force for good are the graduates and pupils of this school. They are scattered all over this land and far away climes have the benefit of their aid. It is a cause whose value can hardly be estimated.

Minister Tells of Germany

Rev. F. T. Peters of Manchester talked on things German here and in the fatherland. The gentleman is a native of Germany and has enough brogue to spice his language and make it interesting. He is most assuredly a live wire and equally sure is he a patriotic citizen of the United States. He told how he lost his mother when an infant and innocently voted for two presidents because he honestly supposed he was of age and his looks indicated it. He told of the hard conditions of the people in the native country the poverty, the crushing burden of taxation, the coarse and meager food; the rigid rules under which they live and the manner in which they regard this country as a paradise. Yet without into their very being from childhood is instilled a veneration amounting to devotion for the kaiser, hatred of France and England and an idea that the earth is theirs if they can take it by force.

Then he told of being with his native people in this country and the leanings of some for the waterland even in the present conflict. He said there were black spots in this country that needed cleaning up and he had no hesitation in saying so. One man had been sent out by the government to buy hay and it was noticeable that he bought only of Germans. That man is doing something else now. ne settlement was conspicuous by its absence of the flag till it was intimated to the citizens that it would be well to change their course. All did it but one and when Mr. Peters visited that place he took from his pocket a small flag and put it on that house and the owner raised a larger one.

Our land is honeycombed with spies. They have destroyed enough foot in an incendiary manner to feed an army of 300,000 for a year. They must be put down and they will be. He looks for the time when the Hohenzollern dynasty will be no more and freedom, intelligence and good fellowship will prevail throughout Europe.

Judging from his effort last night the Manchester people are fortunate in their pastor.

TAYLOR'S ADV. REPRODUCED

A recent issue of "Team Work," published in St. Louis for the benefit of advertisers and agencies, reproduces an advertisement of the A. R. Taylor grocery which was printed in the Journal. The advertisement attracted the attention of the "Team Work" management because "first a good clear cut lay out; then a plain strictly business successful set up, no frills; third the featuring of ten nationally advertised trade mark lines of meritorious grocery products." Above is a part of the printed comment on the advertisement and the "Team Work" editor goes on to say that this standardizing thru local advertising connects up a store with national publicity in a way that is valuable. The use of the rules is mentioned as effective, dividing the space to give every part an equal display.

Coach Hoover will take his high school team to Girard today to play the Girard high team. Girard has a strong team having defeated Waverly and played a tie game with Taylorville.

HAS SEED CORN HOUSE

Altho it is generally understood that seed corn will be scarce the coming year, L. W. James living north of the city, believes that he has saved a goodly portion of his crop in good condition for seed purposes. Mr. James has a large drying house and his arrangement of wire frames is well suited to the business. He had some of his corn cut before the early frost and he finds that this corn gives no evidence of injury.

WILL VISIT CAMP LOGAN

Mrs. Grant Graff and Mrs. Byron Graff left last night for Houston, Texas. They are going south to visit Lieut. Byron Graff at Camp Logan and expect to be gone about two weeks. Lieut. Graff was assigned to the quartermaster's division at Camp Logan several weeks since.

MORTUARY

Conlon.
Mrs. Stephen Conlon residing northwest of Murrayville died about midnight Friday. A more extended obituary will be published in Sunday's Journal.

It is hinted that the Eastern league and the New York State league may pool issues and organize a new baseball circuit.

ROUTT COLLEGE WON FROM VIRGINIA HIGH

Defeated Cass County Team by Score of 27 to 24—Game was Fast Thruout—Routt was Strong at Guarding.

Routt College won from Virginia high in its opening game of the season at Liberty hall Friday night by a score of 27 to 24. The game was witnessed by a large crowd and enthusiasm ran high as first one team and then the other forged to the front.

At the end of the first half the score was 13 to 10 in favor of Routt and this lead was maintained until the close of the game. In the second half Virginia held Routt even each scoring 14 points.

The game was one of the best ever seen on the Liberty hall floor. Routt displayed surprising form and followers of the team are predicting that it will be fully as strong as that of last year when it gets to going. All of the men played fine ball and worked together which was one of the things that finally brought victory. Walsh and Zell at the forward positions were the chief point makers. Wolff proved a worthy successor to his brother at center and Kennedy and Cooney did good work at guard. It was their close guarding that prevented many Virginia scores, as they were unable to break thru the defense.

Virginia showed one of the best teams that has played Routt for some time. The men were fast and played well together. They were fighting every inch of the way and never quit until the final whistle blew. French, McNeely and Cline were the visitors' stars. The score:

FUNERALS

Richardson

Funeral services for Christopher Richardson were held from Pisgah Presbyterian church Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. T. G. Shaw. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends which served to show the high regard in which the deceased was held in the community in which he lived. Appropriate hymns were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Otis Mason, Miss Violet Davis and W. W. Gilliam with Miss Blanche Cunningham at the piano. The flowers were cared for by Mrs. James Dobyns, Mrs. Fred Moeller, Miss Ada Vasey and Miss Violet Davis. Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery, the bearers being James Dobyns, George Hall, William Luken, George Graff, Henry Welborn and Irvin Stevenson.

Christopher Richardson died at his home near Orleans, Ill., Nov. 21, 1917. The deceased having spent the greater part of his life near our station and his cheerful way even in his old age left a ray of sunshine on our mind. As we have heard him tell in his younger days when he would lift a sack of wheat on his shoulder and in his later years we have seen this same small man in stature walk the road to Orleans every day until the last year or so rain or shine. His face would appear for his man daily, he and one other face met regularly at nearly the same hour, our deceased friend, Mr. Stevenson. Thus regular habits were placed before us younger men as an example of what years we might attain if we would live up to the plain way of living which they held.

His "Good morning" was clear, his countenance bright, his ringing quick step, clean habits spoke out louder than words.

With the passing of these old friends the world has lost their mortal bodies but their lives will ever burn upon our memory as a lesson that may make better citizens for our great country which so much needs their services, so let us emulate as best we can some of their habits that will sure bring of results in our armies across the sea and at home. While memory haunts the four square walls in which we live and what remains of his better half who still survives him in her old age may she live to see (as is the will of our Creator) his regular habits, his aims and ambitions installed in the young men of our land for a greater America.

BAZAAR BY THE BLIND

Attention is again called to the bazaar to be given at the Andre & Andre store today by members of the State Association of the Blind. The display was received yesterday and includes articles made by persons resident in various parts of the state. The display is very interesting as it shows the aptness and skill of the blind in various kinds of industry. Musicians from the State School for the Blind will give musical programs at the store from 10 to 12 o'clock, 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 today.

JOB COATES OBSERVES HIS 81ST BIRTHDAY

Well Known Resident of Orleans Neighborhood Entertains Friends at Dinner

One of the most pleasant gatherings occurred at the home of Job Coates near Orleans, yesterday. Not often a man 81 years old can sit down with his friends and enjoy a dinner such as was set before us yesterday. No one seemed to enjoy it more than our esteemed host, as it is his nature not to make a show in this life but to make things real as was shown from the dinner he had placed before us, prepared by ladies who certainly know how to prepare a dish (fit for an American). Formerly we would say a king but now we say an American for they are the greatest type of man known to the human race from one end of the broad seas to another.

Of our host Mr. Coates, a man to whom we should throw bouquets while he lives so the stern old man can receive them very few realize the qualities that make up this great mind which the younger set could take off their hat to. Coming to our native soil as we understand financially embarrassed he took off his coat labored day in and day out, saved as some might think too economically but not such that but the grey matter worked as well and while others condemned he toiled, saved and managed until in his old days he has accumulated a fortune and money comes easy. His master mind being educated by former days has become so strong it remains a principle, with him, and we have known of many charitable acts he has done which he does not care to be made public.

Many men have received his helping hand and counsel in time of need.

Let us hope many more years of peaceful life be given him as is our Master's will and that our young men can find qualities that will be of use to them in the coming years of struggle. Our Great Country will need more "Job Coates" to steer the great ship across the dreaded submarines and sharp rocks that must be passed by means of such qualities that our esteemed friend holds in abundance.

HOME MADE DYES WIN

A representative of one of the largest overall factories in the country said yesterday to a Journal reporter that the house uses wholly dyes made at home and they are fully equal to the German article in quality though they yet do not have as many shades but they will come. He said the government was behind the enterprise and millions had been invested in it and wisely too. For a long time it was supposed that only in Germany could a good article of dyes be made but that country will wake up to a good many surprises when the war is over.

FOOD ADMINISTRATION'S PLANS TOUCH ALL PEOPLE

CAMPAIGN FOR ECONOMY OF CERTAIN FOODSTUFFS IS WIDESPREAD.

Set to Teach Public That Changes in Diet Can Be Made Which Will Save Food and Not Cause Discomfort—Need for Sugar Conservation is Shown.

Food administration activities are now of a kind which touch every community. No small part of this service is found in the suggestions that are being sent out from time to time for kitchen and table economy. It is doubtful if the people generally ever before had so many facts spread before them about the relative values of food products, or have thought so much about nutrition and "the balanced ration" as applied to men, women and children. The food administration is seeking to show the people that there is great need for economy in food products and that by certain changes from their established diet that they will not affect their health or happiness and at the same time may aid greatly in the great movement for conservation.

Comprehensive Organization
M. F. Dunlap as local food administrator, receives many letters on this general subject and the administration recalls the thanksgiving spirit in food to teach the public new uses for corn in order to conserve the wheat supply. As previously mentioned, Mr. Dunlap is perfecting an organization which will have county wide representation and through this organization later on it is hoped to furnish the government all desired information with reference to food supply and crop conditions in this country. With an organization along somewhat similar lines in every county in the state and in every state in the union it is easy to understand how vast is the machinery of the food administration.

One of the most recent pieces of literature sent out by the administration recalls the thanksgiving spirit of 1779, and suggests that in this year the thanksgiving sacrifice should be a certain sense of sacrifice of food and that people should do without staples that are needed by the soldiers. This is the way the Thanksgiving economy idea is presented.

1779—The Thanksgiving Spirit—1779
Juliana Smith writes to "Dear Cousin Betty" of Thanksgiving dinner—1779.

"Everything was good, though we did have to do without some things that ought to be used. Neither love nor (paper) money could buy raisins nor our good red cherries, dried without the pits, did almost as well.

"Of course we could have no roast beef. None of us have tasted beef, this three years back as it all must go to the army, and too little they get, poor fellows. But, Navyguy, my hunters were able to get us a fine red deer, so that we had a good haunch of venison on each table."

This was the Thanksgiving spirit in the midst of the American Revolution. The colonies were engaged in the war that made America safe for democracy. Thanksgiving—1717 and America engaged in a war to make the world safe for democracy. Juliana writing in 1779 has given the text for Thanksgiving dinner in 1917. She has made all the points; the sermon is not needed; everything was good—we do without some things—our own cherries—roast beef or the soldiers.

War Kitchens and War Dishes.
One of the suggestive menus that the food administration is sending out is included in the following paragraphs about a war kitchen established in Washington for the purpose of demonstration to women some little recognized facts about food values:

War-kitchens have opened in many American cities as centers for the study of foods and special war-dishes. Modeled after English war-kitchens they will teach lessons likely to be needed long after the war is over.

Present prices of foods, especially meats, have scrapped old ideas of diet for all but the wealthy. Women of limited incomes have turnouts, rice, mince and bread for the principal part of the meal.

But these foods contain an excess of starch and do not make a well-balanced nourishing ration. The continued use of starchy foods means underfeeding, and if the majority of people are to be well fed during the coming winter they must learn the protein value of cheese, beans, fish, eggs and milk.

An Economy Menu.
To spear such information a volunteer group of women has opened in Washington a Liberty War-Kitchen. They served the first lunch October 24th, to eight members of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Food Administration. The meal costs 18.3 cents per plate, not including the fuel. This is the menu: Split pea soup 2.5c
Fish and potato timbale 9.5c
Bean muffins (three each) 4.2c
Baked apple 2.0c
Total 18.3c

The Sugar Shortage.
In a recent article in the Journal it was shown that the purchase of sugar in Jacksonville is now limited to two lbs. at any one time. This action by the grocers has been taken in accordance with the instructions of the food administration. It has been stated that this rule, which is now generally enforced, will be amended before many days as the incoming sugar crop is expected to relieve the situation. However, it is entirely possible that the rule may stand for months to come since it is known that the U. S. is now seeking to cut down the normal sugar consumption in this country by a considerable portion in order that sugar may be sent to France.

Statistics show that the average annual per capita consumption of sugar in the U. S. is 90 lbs. and the food administration is hoping that by proper economy methods this may be reduced to 67 lbs. The sugar export figures compiled by the U. S. food administration show very clearly the importance of conserving the sugar supply.

Export Figures.
In 1917, the United States exported over eighteen times as much sugar as it had averaged in the three years before the war. In 1916 these exports to our western European Allies were nineteen times as great as the average for the three pre-war years. In 1916, of all our sugar exports to the western Allies, 70 per cent went to England. By contrast, in 1917, France received 62 per cent of these exports.

In 1912 our total sugar exports amounted to $3,747,755 pounds; in 1913 to $7,957,751 pounds; in 1914 to $2,323,615 pounds; they increased to $81,719,510 pounds in 1915, and reached high water mark in 1916, when the total was 1,655,895,639. In 1917 the total was 1,254,551,280 pounds.

England, before the war, had the largest per capita consumption of sugar of any nation. This amounted to 12.3 pounds per person per year. This has now been reduced to 26 pounds per ear, or about one ounce per day per person. Prior to the war, England received 38.55 per cent of her sugar supply from Germany; 15.73 per cent from Austria-Hungary; 9.43 per cent from the Netherlands; 6.7 per cent from Java; 7.1 per cent from Cuba; and only 1.14 per cent from the United States.

The United States' consumption of sugar averages about 90 pounds per year per person. The Food Administration has asked the saving of 7 ounces per week per person; and if this were done, it would still leave us a per capita consumption of sugar of 67 pounds per annum, as compared with the 26 pounds in England; 18 pounds in France and 12 pounds in Italy.

FATHER HICKEY IS GROWING OLD

Well Known Catholic Priest Recently Celebrated His 76th Birthday. Is Vicar General of Alton Diocese.

Rev. Father Timothy Hickey, who has recently celebrated his seventy-six birthday, is well known to many Jacksonville people. Father Hickey was in charge of the Church of Our Savior for a number of years, before going to Springfield in 1889 as rector of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Father Hickey is vicar general of the Alton diocese of the Catholic church and has the title of monsignor.

Father Hickey was born in County Cork, Ireland, in 1841. He began his early education in the National schools in that country, and was ordained at All Hallows college in Dublin. He came to the United States in 1868, direct to Springfield, to accept the post of assistant priest of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. After three years he took charge of the Catholic church at Virden, having at the same time supervision of the charges of Auburn, and Sugar Creek. He later held charges at Decatur, Pittsfield, and Jacksonville, returning to Springfield in 1889 as rector of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, where he has since remained.

OVER HUNDRED NAMES ON COMPANY'S ROSTER

Local State Council of Defense Unit Assured—Will Later Be Merged Into Militia Reserve Corps.

Recruiting has been good at the Jacksonville bank the past few days and the book last night showed the names of more than one hundred men willing to join the local unit of the militia reserve corps of the Sixth Illinois Regiment. Word was sent to the headquarters of the State Council of Defense to that effect last night, with request for papers of organization for the company. It was specified in the communication that the Jacksonville organization wished to become a member of the militia reserve corps of the Sixth Regiment. It seems that in organizing for the reserve corps it is necessary for the company first to become a member under the direction of the State Council of Defense, and then transfer from this organization to the militia corps, under command of state authorities.

The following men have signed up for the local company:

REMAKING GARMENTS IS PRACTICAL WORK

Exhibit at Public Library Building Shows What Can Be Done in This Line—Old Clothes Look Like New Ones.

At the public library building there is a display of made over garments fashioned mainly by women of State Street Presbyterian church, but now being shown to give an idea of work which will be done by a department of the Red Cross society. Just from observation it could not be told that many of the garments are fashioned from "made over" materials. For they have the same style and freshness of new garments. This of course is not true of all the articles of apparel shown, but one is well made and will give just as much real wearing service as articles made from new materials. On many of the articles there are printed slips to give the observer an idea of how the article was produced.

On one screen there are six baby blankets, a sleeping bag, with hood, all made from "one of grandmother's worn out blankets." Nearby is a coat pad made for use at the open end of a coat, lined with materials from a cast off dress skirt. The interlining is from an old woolen petticoat.

A pretty cap and sweater which will both please some child and keep him warm, bears an inscription which shows that it was made from an old scarf. On one of the screens is a pretty little plush coat with the legend, "This coat did duty as a piano cover." One child's coat was made from materials taken from a woman's coat in style ten years ago and an attractive looking black silk cap shown was made from the sleeve of a worn out shirt waist.

Garments Made to Fit
There are boys' undergarments made and are just as good and warm as materials and workmanship can make them. There are dozens of other articles which might be mentioned, all of them going to prove how well worth while is the work planned. Too often used garments are given away without regard to their appropriateness for the person who receives them.

A coat may be frayed at the edges and have the lining torn, and the recipient, even if the garment fits him, has a feeling of shabbiness. Under the plan of work these women are following such a garment will be remodeled in a way to obliterate all marks of shabbiness and the coat will look like a new one when it reaches its new owner, although that owner may be somewhat smaller in stature than the original wearer of the coat. Certainly those who visit the library room and look at the various classes of work which has been done in the remodeling of garments will be convinced that this is a practical type of philanthropic effort.

NOTICE!
All residents of the city are urged to clean yards and walks of surplus leaves and to burn them before 2 p. m. Prompt compliance with the request will help keep the sewers clean during the winter months.

OPEN CHICAGO OFFICE FOR GRAIN REPORTING

Branch of Federal Bureau of Markets Will Issue Bi-weekly Estimates of These Commodities in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, and Part of Michigan.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 23.—The new grain and hay market reporting service now being developed by the Bureau of Markets of the United States Department of Agriculture will begin December 1 in the east central division, which includes the States of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, and the southern peninsula of Michigan. Lester R. Spencer, of the Bureau of Markets, left Washington this week to take charge of the office, which will be located in Chicago in the Board of Trade Building. The east-central division is one of 10 districts into which the country has been divided for this service.

Bi-weekly reports will be issued as soon as the necessary organization can be completed. These will show estimates of stocks of wheat, corn, oats, and hay in dealers' hands in each district, estimates of the amount of each of these commodities which will be shipped from stations in each district during the two weeks following the date of the report, and of amounts which will be shipped to stations in each district during the two weeks following the report. The range of prices at which certain grades of these commodities are being offered for sale for shipment in carload lots at stations in each district on a given date will be given, as will the range of prices at which similar grades will be purchased for shipment to these stations on the same date. The reports also show the lowest price at which certain grades of grain and hay are being offered for sale in carload lots for prompt shipment from a number of the large markets from which States in this division customarily draw their supplies.

NEW BOOKS AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The following list of new books will be ready for circulation today:

Literature
Clandel—The East I Know. "So much beauty compels my laughter. What splendor, what 'brilliance'! What a wealth of inextinguishable color! It is refreshment this blue has for me. How tender the green is and how cool; and looking up toward the furthest heaven, what peace to see it still so dark that the stars twinkle there! But how well you know, my friend where to turn and what awaits you, if on lifting your eyes you need not blush to behold this heavenly brightness. Oh may it indeed be this color which I am given to contemplate! Not red, and not the color of the sun, it is the fusing of blood in gold. It is life consummated in victory. It is the perpetual renewal of youth in eternity."

Seeger—Letters and Diary. Grant—The Young American poet of the foreign legion "that rare privilege of dying well."

Seeger—Poems. Although it is through the poem "I have a Rendezvous with Death" that most people came to know Allan Seeger, it is well to remember that he also wrote "From a boy I gloated on existence. Earth to me seemed all-sufficient and my sojourn there."

One trembling opportunity for joy." Treasury of War Poems, ed. by George Herbert Clarke. Gift.
Description and Travel
Markham—California the Wonderful. "Where tides of grass break into foam of flowers and where the wind's feet shine along the sea."
The Island of Guam—Illustrated. Gift.

Grinnell—Trails of the Pathfinder. A book which is at once history and adventure, a picture of the West, distant and full of romance.

Debate
Patten—How to Conduct a Debate.
Rowton—Practical Argumentation.

Thomas—Manual of Debate. Education
Suggestions for Teaching Good Manners in Elementary Schools. Issued by Commission of Education of California.

Vocational Education and Guidance of Youth. Pamphlet.
Miscellaneous
Sinclair—Fasting Cure.
Hall—Some Naval Yarns.
Rent Fiction

Barry—Joan.
Bonner—Treasure.
Butler—Domine Dean.
London—Jury of the Islands.

HELD QUARTERLY MEETING.

The regular quarterly meeting of Brooklyn and Asbury M. E. churches was held Friday afternoon with Rev. W. L. Fletcher, the district superintendent presiding. The regular work was carried out, which included reports of the pastor, Sunday school and Ladies Aid societies. The reports showed affairs to be in a splendid condition. Plans for the coming year's work were discussed and also plans for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Brooklyn church. The salary of the pastor, Rev. W. W. Theobald, who serves Brooklyn and Asbury was also fixed.

Miss Cora Duffy, a deputy in the corporation court in Alexandria, Va., has the distinction of being the first woman ever to serve on a jury in the State of Virginia.

TIRED OF LIFE

Constant Backache
and Rheumatism

Foley Kidney Pills fixed up Texas brakeman to be good as ever.

Almost down and out with kidney trouble, rheumatism so bad he could scarcely get up when he sat down, back ached all the time.

No wonder Mr. F. A. Wooley, brakeman on the road from Dallas to Jackson, Texas, "was tired of living."

"I saw Foley Kidney Pills advertised," he said, "I took some and after a short time I was tired of being cured and am having no more trouble."

Your kidney pills will disappear—and with them the backache and rheumatism, by the use of Foley's Kidney Pills. Once your kidneys become strong and active, aches and pains will disappear like magic.

There's nothing to equal the genuine. Will help any case of kidney or bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicines. Contains no harmful drugs. Try them.

Kokomo, Ind.—Mrs. H. Hankemeier, of this town, says: "I look so well, and am so well, that it does not seem as if I ever needed Cardui. But I was not always this way. . . I think I have taken a dozen bottles . . . before my little girl came."

I was feeling dreadfully bad, had headache, backache, sick at my stomach, no energy. . . I was very irritable, too, and nervous.

I began taking Cardui about 6 months before my baby came. As a result all those bad feelings left me, and I just felt grand, just as if nothing at all was the matter, and when the end came I was hardly sick at all.

Since that I have never taken Cardui at all. . . It has done me good, and I know it will help others, if they will only try it."

Many women have written grateful letters like the above, telling of the good that Cardui has done them. Why should it not help you, too? If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, and feel the need of a safe, reliable, strengthening tonic, we urge you to begin today and give Cardui a fair trial. FIGHT
FOR YOUR LIFEDuty Demands
Robust Health

Fight to get it and keep it

Fight—fight day in and day out to prevent being overtaken by ill and ails. Keep wrinkles from marring the cheek and the body from losing its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight when ill-health is coming with its pallor and pains, defects and declining powers. Fight to stay its course and drive it off.

But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman oftentimes becomes a prey to ill after all.

You will not find this class of persons in the hypoferrin ranks. No unhealthy, dull, drab, droopy persons in that line. It is a hale, hearty, robust aggregation of quick-steppers who view life in a joyous frame of mind and are mentally and physically equal to any emergency. Hypoferrin stands for sound body and sound mind—it is the invigorating tonic of the times—powerful and unsurpassed as a health restorer, vitalizer and health preserver. Fight to hold the vigor of a sound body with hypoferrin or to stay the process of decay and restore health and strength—you win. This tonic of amazing, wonder-working properties has been approved by physicians as a restorer and safeguard of health. It is a thorough scientific preparation of the very elements necessary to tone up the stomach and nerves, to build strong, vital tissue, make pure blood, firm flesh and solid, active, tireless muscles.

Hypoferrin contains those mighty strength-producing agents, lecithin and iron peptonate, in a form best adapted to benefit the body and its organs. Its ingredients are absolutely necessary to the blood. In nine cases out of ten a run-down condition, sallow, pale complexion that "all in" feeling and frail bodies are due to lack of lecithin and iron peptonate in the system.

Your mental strength and endurance depends upon a lecithin and iron peptonate laden blood; steady, dependable nerves and a healthy stomach. With these you can meet life at any angle.

Thus wonder tonic, hypoferrin, which is as perfect as science can get to nature, meets every essential demand of the human organism. It is safe and sure and a boon to run-down, worn-out men and women. Hypoferrin means nature's own way of bringing color to the cheeks, strength to the body and keeping the vigor and buoyancy of youth. The power and paint you are seeking beauty is not needed by hypoferrin women and girls. Their blood, filled with nature's beauty stores, creates conditions that give firmness and grace to the body and the glow of health to the cheeks.

No need of going through life sickly and always feeling miserable. In this age of medical science. Join the hypoferrin ranks. It puts into you the springy snap and vigor you ought to have and puts life into your body and mind that inspires the confidence that you confront the world on an equal footing with anyone.

Hypoferrin may be had at your drug store or direct from Scientific Hypoferrin Co. It is well worth the price. The Scientific Hypoferrin Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

ANNIVERSARY RECALLS

FAMOUS NAVAL FEAT

Birthday of Lieut. William Barker Cushing, Officer of U. S. Navy. Among First to Employ Torpedo With Success in Warfare.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—In these days of stirring naval warfare, in which the submarine and its deadly torpedo play one of the most conspicuous parts, it is not without interest to recall that today is the seventy-fifth anniversary of the birth of Lieut. William Barker Cushing, a gallant officer of the United States Navy and one of the first to employ the torpedo with success in actual warfare.

The feat of Lieut. Cushing in blowing up the famous Confederate ram Albemarle with a torpedo was one of the most brilliant exploits in the naval history of the American civil war.

The Confederates had caused the Federal navy a great deal of worry, and not a small loss in vessels, with their armored rams, which proved their best offensive weapon on the sea next to their commerce destroyers.

The Albemarle was completed early in 1864, in the Roanoke river, and in the spring came out and attacked a naval force near Plymouth, sinking one vessel and disabling another. A hundred-pound rifle shot made no impression on her armored sides.

On May 5 she had a second encounter with Federal vessels, seven of them attacking her without result. Efforts to blow her up with torpedoes proved unavailing.

A brilliant plan. At this juncture Cushing, who had been in command of a small steamer watching for blockade runners, proposed to destroy the ram as she lay at her berth in the river. His plan was brilliant and involved great risk to all who should engage in its execution. It was in short to equip two small boats with torpedoes rigged on poles, and by approaching the ram at night, to plant the torpedoes under her.

Two open launches, building at New York for picket duty, were secured, but one of them was lost on her way south. With the other and a crew of 15 volunteers, Cushing attacked the Roanoke river on the night of Oct. 27, 1864, towing a cutter with a few men, bent on the destruction of the Albemarle.

To those on the Federal ships who said goodbye to him he seemed good to sure death, for the river banks were lined with batteries and the country on both sides of the river was filled with Confederates. The night was very dark and Cushing arrived near the Albemarle before being discovered, notwithstanding that he was obliged to pass close to the bulk of the Union Steamer Southfield, sunk in the channel some months before by the Albemarle, on which a Confederate picket was stationed.

He found a boom of logs around the Albemarle, making his task apparently hopeless, for on his discovery a heavy fire was opened on him, with rifles and howitzers, from the ram and the shore.

Under this galling fire, with his men falling dead around him, Cushing headed his launch for the boom.

FOR LUMBAGO

Try Musterole. See How Quickly It Relieves

You just rub Musterole in briskly, and usually the pain is gone—a delicious, soothing comfort comes to take its place. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Use it instead of mustard plaster. Will not blister.

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Always dependable. 30 and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

Try Making Your Own
Cough Remedy

You can save about $2. and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you would hardly have in them all the curative power that lies in this simple "home-made" cough syrup which takes only a few minutes to prepare.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 65 cents and gives you a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Tastes pleasant and never soils.

This Pinex and sugar syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes that line the throat, chest and bronchial tubes, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, be sure to ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

of logs at full speed and drove her over them.

Faced Danger Calmly. Then working as calmly as if in drill, he placed the long pole, on which was fixed his torpedo, under the bow of the ram. While doing this he stood directly in front of the ship's great gun, which, if discharged, would have blown him and his boat into atoms.

With the torpedo placed, he calmly pulled the four ropes which were to discharge it. Bullets cut his coat half off his back while he was doing this, but he had planted the explosive to his satisfaction, and it exploded as he wished.

Just as the torpedo went off, with a night detonation, a charge of 100 pounds of grapeshot crashed into Cushing's torpedo boat, sinking her. Cushing swam half a mile down the stream, while Confederates swarmed its banks looking for him, and into a lagoon in a swamp. Here, while lying hidden, he heard from passing Confederates that the Albemarle had sunk at her docks.

Cushing found a boat, in which he made his escape to the fleet. Only one man escaped, the others being killed or taken prisoners.

The destruction of the Albemarle went far toward breaking the strength of the Confederates on the South Atlantic coast.

Lieutenant Cushing was a native of Wisconsin and came of a family that furnished several distinguished men to the United States army and navy. His death occurred in this city in 1874, when he was but 32 years of age.

DIES AT PAOLA, KAN.

Death Came to Mrs. George Breen After Brief Illness—Relatives go to Funeral.

A telegram received Friday by H. H. Massey brought news of the death of his sister, Mrs. George Breen, in Paola, Kans. The deceased was married a good many years ago to the late Jerry Sibert and subsequently married George Breen, who died a few years since. The family home has been at Paola for a long period. Mrs. Breen is survived by two daughters and one son, Charles Sibert of Fruitport, Mich., and Henry Sibert of this city, and Miss Mamie Breen who lives at the family home. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sibert have been visiting at Paola and had left there for New Berlin to spend a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Huffaker. A telegram reached them at New Berlin telling of the sudden illness of Mrs. Breen and her death. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sibert, Henry Sibert and H. H. Massey left last night for Paola to attend the funeral.

Further facts about Mrs. Breen's death will be published at a later time.

THE GARDEN OF ALLAH. The Garden of Allah which opened at the Grand Friday afternoon for a two days' stay attracted large audiences at the afternoon and evening performances. The picture is produced on a stupendous scale and is without doubt one of the finest screen productions ever seen in Jacksonville. Not only is the photography good but the acting is also of high class.

Miss Helen Ware, known as one of the best actresses on the speaking stage is cast in the leading role and does some wonderful work. The supporting cast is all that could be desired. A feature of the production is the special music. This is given in a faultless manner by the Grand opera house orchestra under the direction of Prof. Boyd. The picture will be on view again this afternoon and night. It is well worth a trip to the Grand to see it.

Rigid Food Rules Enforced in Camps—Camp Taylor Men Will Have Turkey.

That the government does not countenance the waste of food in army cantonments and that the new draft army men are rapidly learning "orders in orders" is indicated in recent action taken in Camp Dodge. An order has just been issued by army officials there that has been the talk of the camp for several days. It is to prohibit the waste of food.

One paragraph to the effect that plates on which food had been left by the soldiers would be tagged and held for them at the next meal caused considerable comment.

Then someone figured out that if the 26,000 soldiers in camp wasted 1 cent in food each day it amounted to $260 for the day, nearly $8,000 a month, and almost $100,000 yearly for the camp.

So when an officer was appointed in each regimental company to inspect the plates of the soldiers after the meals were completed to see that nothing remained, the soldiers took it good naturedly. They marched up to the officer, who stood, usually, in the center of the mess hall, displayed their clean plates or dumped what little gristle, fat or bones remained into separate pails at his feet.

It was a novelty the first day. In one battery of the Iowa artillery regiment a private who had not quite cleaned the food from his plate deftly slipped his mess kit between the officer's legs while he was looking at the plates of other men and dropped the scraps of food into the pail and mingled in the crowd of his comrades without detection.

Waited for Them. In the same battery three men the first morning the order went into effect left considerable food on their plates. It was set aside for them at the noon meal. Two of the soldiers however, did not show up at dinner and the mess sergeant ordered the plates to be kept until night for the recalcitrants.

"We will keep it for them until they come to meals," he explained, "and they must eat it before they get anything else."

While this order seemed at first a drastic one, it is merely a disciplinary measure and one that will not occur a second time.

"It is simply a matter of habit," the inspecting officer in the artillery said, "and when the men get used to taking only what they want to eat there will be no trouble."

The third meal under this plan in that battery developed, after dinner at which nearly 175 men were fed, less than a pound and a half of gristle and fats, all to be saved for rendering, and three little bones, there was absolutely no waste.

Cooks are Saving. In the kitchen the cooks also are ordered to cut away all fats from the meats that may not be eaten, and only such food as the individual soldier can use is given to him. At one mess five gallons of oatmeal were saved the first breakfast under the food order, as a result of the conservation schedule. The men get all they want—but they do not take a bit more than they want.

Camp Zachary Taylor, Louisville, Ky., Nov. 23.—The selected men of the Eighty-fourth division are looking forward with much anticipation to a big time Thanksgiving and they will not be disappointed. Every man will eat turkey and all of the trimmings. Uncle Sam has said that the men have all the turkey they want. It was at first reported that turkey would be a rarity at camp this Thanksgiving.

Each man will be apportioned a pound of turkey for his dinner, and each company commander can draw on the company fund for any delicacies to add to the feast.

The day will be one to be remembered. There will be great athletic meet, church and band concerts, and a huge military celebration as well. The general staff almost admits that it has something under its hat that will make the day one of many happenings, but they will say nothing until it can be sprung as a big surprise on the men.

The following men from Illinois have been found physically unfit and will be discharged from the service: John Stephenson, 333d Infantry, James J. McDonald, 336th Mch. Gun Bn.

Orville Simmons, 326th Mch. Gun Bn.

James M. Hill, 326th Mch. Gun Bn.

Joseph F. Simpson, 326th Mch. Gun Bn.

Carl L. Johnson, 6th Bn., 159th D. B.

Elmer E. Curry, 326th Mch. Gun Bn.

John Walldrop, 309th San. Train.

Floyd R. Dyer, 309th San. Train.

Arthur F. Heiden, (Ind.) 335th Infantry.

Winfield Koonitz, 334th Infantry.

George E. Hammond, 333rd Infantry.

William E. Worst, 333rd Infantry.

Milthus T. Conjer, 332nd Infantry.

Mike Szymazak, 325th Mach. Gun Bn.

Hugh H. Haynes, 333rd Infantry.

Thomas E. Haddick, 333rd Infantry.

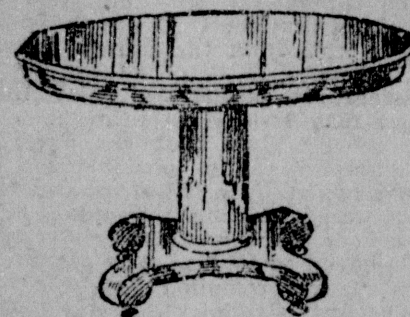

Ambrose Malocchi, 7th Bn., 159th D. B.

Fred Riney, 333rd Infantry.

Morgan County's Men.

Morgan County's men here at the camp, although at first assigned to the Sanitary Train, are pretty well divided up now, as there are about twenty-three of them at the Auxiliary Remount Depot, eighteen at the Base Hospital, ten in the Quartermasters' Department, one in the Signal Corps and the rest are in the Sanitary Train, five of them in the Field Hospital section and the remainder in the Ambulance section.

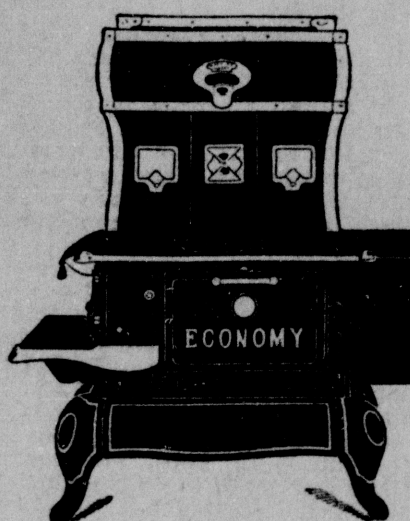

We are being well cared for; in fact from what I have read and heard I believe we are much better cared for than any other army which the United States, or any other country for that matter, ever assembled.

The barracks are well heated with large stoves which resemble furnaces and our latrines are fitted up with modern plumbing. One of the things which I think might be considered a luxury for an army in camp, is the shower bath with hot and cold water, and each of the latrines in the camp is fitted up with several of these showers. For example the barracks in which I am quartered has a latrine with eight of these showers in it.

WOODSON

The Unity Workers of the Presbyterian church of Woodson met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. Ramella. The occasion was to celebrate her birthday. The program of the meeting was carried out after which refreshments and a social hour enjoyed.

The Red Cross Auxiliary of Woodson is wide awake in doing their bit. Mrs. W. G. Russel who is chairman of the knitting committee, brought ten sweaters, four pair of wristlets and seventeen pair of socks to the Red Cross headquarters yesterday.

Mrs. George Brodgon entertained seventeen young folks at her home in Woodson Friday in honor of the sixth birthday of her little son, Joseph. The hours were from one to five. A three course luncheon was served and the amusements were entertaining for the little ones.

COUNTY TEACHERS HELD TWO SESSIONS

Addresses Delivered at Institute Friday Were Inspirational in Character—War Brings Problem to Teachers

The attendance at the session of the Morgan county teachers' institute Friday was unusually large. The city and county schools were closed in order to give the teachers opportunity to attend and there were few absentees. Morning and afternoon sessions were held. Dr. John J. McShane of the public health department of Illinois was to be present at the afternoon session and make an address on "Tuberculosis as a War Problem," but was unable to attend. In his stead Rev. W. R. Leslie, pastor of Centenary church, was secured on short notice and made a most excellent address on "The Four Rules of Life."

Miss Anna English presided during the morning session and in the afternoon Burley Jones, newly elected president, was in the chair. The newly elected officers are:

President—Burley Jones.
Vice-president—Miss Ione Knechler.
Secretary and treasurer—Miss Maude Hulce.

Morning Session
The morning session opened with the singing of America by the audience and appropriate words of greeting were extended by Supt. H. H. Vasconcellos. The speaker referred to the work of the year which has progressed in very satisfactory manner, and mentioned some problems of school management which will come up this year. Under the direction of Miss Emma M. Leonard and Miss Lena Hopper a scene from "The Windmills of Holland" was presented by the high school chorus and was greatly appreciated.

The principal address of the morning was delivered by Rev. Myron L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church. His theme was "Civilization" and it had to do mainly with present day affairs as related to America's part in the great war. It was an address teeming with patriotism, in which the speaker pointed out that there are many lines of patriotic duty and that bearing arms at the front is by no means the only way in which those who are truly patriotic may give aid to their country.

Afternoon Session
At the afternoon session a musical program of half an hour's length was given by Miss Lazelle, Miss Moore and Mr. Jensen of the faculty of the College of Music. It was indeed a delightful program and was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience. Rev. Mr. Leslie was introduced to speak on "The Four Rules of Life." He divided his address into four parts, considering first the rule of the jungle, which is typified by brute strength, with selfishness as one of the principal animating forces. In the earlier days this iron rule was exemplified by Nero and Napoleon and in these latter days Germany is its embodiment.

The second rule was termed that of "the eye" and is well exemplified in the idea of "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth." According to this rule man acts in retaliation for that which he has done. In the third place the minister considered the golden rule, which means that mortals should do unto others as they would be done by.

As a fourth precept he presented the diamond rule, and those who make this a part of their life plan are every day unselfish and are ready and willing to serve, realizing in its truest sense the gospel message "Let him who would be the greatest among you be the servant of all." It was altogether an address full of inspiration.

Miss Martha Coale and Dr. Josephine Milligan then presented the cause of the Red Cross seal work in the county. Next some salient facts were quoted to emphasize the great need for this Red Cross work particularly in connection with tuberculosis. War events have emphasized in a new way how great is the task of checking the white plague, for physical examinations conducted by exemption boards have shown that the persons affected with tuberculosis or showing symptoms are far more numerous than even students of the tuberculosis problem had believed.

ATTENDED GAME SUPPER.

Rev. E. L. Fletcher and E. G. Saye attended a game supper given by the men of the Methodist church in Virginia Thursday evening. The supper was attended by 136 men and proved successful in every particular. Following the supper a number of talks were made which included remarks by Mr. Fletcher and Mr. Saye.

RALPH DOUGLAS NOW WITH MILITARY POLICE

Morgan County Boy Writes of New Duties at Texas Training Camp—Gives Outline of Day's Program.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Douglas have received the following letter from their grandson, Ralph O. Douglas, who is with other former Co. B. members at Camp Logan, Texas. The young man, who prior to enlistment was an employee of the Journal company, is now a member of the military police, of which there are two companies at the camp. He describes their new quarters as comfortable, with electric lights, board floors, etc. The letter follows:

Camp Logan, Nov. 18, 1917.

Dear Grandpa and Grandma:
Your letter received several days ago. Also received your package which I was very glad to get. The sweater was just the thing and is made like most of the boys wear. You know that the army regulations will not permit you to wear a sweater on duty, unless it is covered by a shirt or blouse. I wore it several nights during a cold spell and it was pretty comfortable. However, I have been pretty lucky in regard to clothes, even more so than most of the boys for I have a good supply to keep me warm. The army supply company have not got much to put out so therefore we don't get many clothes issued to us. I have an overcoat and a wool O. D. blouse so with that sweater I keep pretty warm while walking my beat at night.

Most of the time it is warm enough to go in your shirt sleeves except at night, but when it gets chilly the do is so thin that it goes thru more than the cold weather of Illinois.

Since the Military Police moved to our new quarters we have a better place to stay than before. We have board floors and sidewalks in our tents. We also have tent stoves and electric lights. I have my tick filled with hay and with my three blankets on canvas cot. I have almost as good a bed as the one at home, but just the same I would a whole lot rather be at home.

Well I guess you will be interested in my new work. You know about how much I knew about horses and how well I could handle them. Well you can imagine how I felt when they gave me a horse that had not been ridden for some time and sent me out to do cavalry drill with only a halter and no saddle. I just got my horse last week and have drilled three mornings straight with him bare-backed and believe me I had almost as soon stand up as to sit down for rest. I was pretty lucky tho in getting an old cavalry horse that was very gentle in comparison to some of the rest of them. When I first got on his back he stood on his hind legs twice but I stayed there and that is all the monkey shins he has pulled off so far. I am expecting to have a little fun when I go to bridle and saddle him.

Since we have had our horses we put in a nice days work. First call sounds at six o'clock and that is the call we dread most for it is getting up time. We have reveille and roll call at six o'clock and at 6:15 go to stable and feed. At 7:00 mess (breakfast) and stable call at 7:30 when we curry, etc. At 7:45 we fall in for cavalry drill and leave drill field at eleven o'clock. That puts us back to our tents just in time to wash and fall in for mess at 12 o'clock. At 1:30 p. m. we fall in for infantry drill until 3:30. Stable call at 4:00 o'clock. Parade at 4:45. Mess at 5:30. This is the program for the week when we are off duty. You see there are two companies of Military Police, one is on duty a week and then the other company goes on a week. Then we walk our beats as policemen should day and night taking care of horses between times.

Well I must close now so bye-bye. With best love to both of you.
Your grandson,
Ralph O. Douglas.

OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE NOTES

Special interest is being shown in the Boy's Conference, which is to be held in Jacksonville the last day of November and the first two days of December. Special interest will be shown in the strong speakers who will be in the city during those days, among them being F. A. Crosby, who will explain the boys working reserve, an organization which has to do with the economic efficiency of the country during the war. Dean J. N. Artman, who is Dean of the Boy's Work in the Y. M. C. A. College of Chicago, will give a series of talks to the leaders and to the boys themselves. He will give the address at the Father's Meeting, which will be held Sunday afternoon in the State Street Church.

Saturday afternoon the boys will be entertained by Superintendent Gillett of the School for the Deaf and Superintendent Woolson of the School for the Blind. Both of these institutions will have a special program to show the boys what is being done along these lines in these institutions.

The committee on entertainment is making progress. Two of the churches have already come up to their quota, and are very much enthused over the opportunity of having these splendid boys in their homes. One good Christian mother in Jacksonville expects to take care of six boys, and is showing her interest in this conference in other ways as well.

The city of Jacksonville is very fortunate in having the opportunity to take care of these hundreds of the finest boys in Illinois, for the three days.

The keynote of the conference will be set by the kind of hospitality with which these boys are entertained. It is urged that every Christian home in Jacksonville be at the disposal of the entertainment committee.

The state officials say that the success or failure will rest with the entertainment of these boys.

One of the friends who is greatly interested in the boy's work, has made the statement that it is a good thing to have some wholesome boys around the house. It will do the people far more good than the boys themselves will derive from it. Another great friend has said, "I am going to have two boys in my home or bust, and the front door will always be open."
